A Wild Ride!

Tom Corbett Band

Tom Corbett is a mandolin and guitar playing singer songwriter who has played concerts and festivals all over the world from America to Spain, Ireland, England, France, Scandinavia and Japan. Tom has recorded three albums featuring many of his own compositions and a who's-who of guest musicians. His songs were included in Peter Spierer's feature film "Dunsmore", and his current CD "Tonight I Ride" has been in the top 10 on the Euro-Americana charts for several months. Tom is also an in-demand sideman who has toured and recorded with some of the best musicians in the folk and roots musical world, including The Acousticats, John McEuen. The String Wizards. the Nitty Gritty Dirt Band, Jennifer Warnes, Vassar Clements, Laurie Lewis, John Sebastian and Robin and Linda Williams. Tonight, Tom will be accompanied by his own smokin' hot sidemen David Ferguson and Bill Knopf. More info at www.TomCorbett.net.

Garret Swayne

Blessed with dark good looks, a wistfully romantic style, and an easy unassuming charm, country/folk-rock artist Garret Swayne is indeed a lover of life, an ardent suitor of the creative muse. With a keen wit and a slightly irreverent take on life, Garret woos his audiences with sometimes humorous, often poignant, but always beautifully crafted songs that people want to hear again and again. Garret's songs are a chronicle of his life and times. If there's a unifying theme to his music, it's about Connection -- the idea that we're really all of one heart when we get beneath the surface. This is evidenced in the warm reception he receives wherever he performs. Originally from Baltimore, he has traveled the nation and the world, charming audiences throughout the UK, Germany, Switzerland, Scandinavia and even the former Soviet Bloc with his one-of-a-kind brand of Americana. From deeply wrought ballads of inner revelation, to slammin' dance tunes, to whimsical tales of love and redemption, Garret delivers all with passion and honesty. He finds the common thread in ordinary, day-to-day existence...and puts it into song. Visit www.GarretSwayne.com for more!
