Singer/Songwriter Aficionados, Rejoice!

Trish Lester is an award-winning songwriter from Santa Clarita who fully engages her audience with memorable original songs, familiar tunes and personal stories. Her roots are in 60's folk music, and she loves to share music from that era, often encouraging her audience to join in. As a songwriter, Lester's music is fresh and engaging – an eclectic Americana mix, with overtones of folk, country and R&B. Listeners are also moved by Lester's sensitivity in a number of little masterpieces of songwriting, such as "How Do We Go On?" and "Your Special Gift." Her special gift (in addition to a pleasing and honest voice, plus terrific and varied instrumental arrangements) is the ability to allow audiences to hear a new friend, sharing from her heart. Lester brings a lot of life experience to her music, sharing wisdom in a gentle and agreeable manner, often spiced with irony or humor. Her songs leave a lasting impression on audience members young and old alike, with crystal clear lyrics and unforgettable melodies. Visit
