Let the Southern Belles Ring!

Susie Glaze & the Hilonesome Band

Broadway actress, award-winning recording artist and powerhouse vocalist Susie Glaze has been described by Bluegrass Unlimited as "...an important voice on the California Bluegrass scene". Susie has consistently wowed audiences (including ours) and has released 5 great CDs. She will have available for sale her brand-new 6th CD "White Swan", which will be reviewed in FolksWorks' December issue (www.folkworks.org). Susie will be accompanied by husband Steve Rankin, mandolin/guitar; Rob Carlson, lead guitar; Fred Sanders, bass; and Mark Indictor, fiddle.. Visit www.SusieGlaze.com for more!

Dulcie Taylor

Recently transplanted from Virginia to the Central Coast, Dulcie Taylor writes original songs that have something to say about relationships and understanding ourselves. To top it all off, she's a talented singer and multi-instrumentalist who renders her songs with heartfelt emotion. She was one our favorite discoveries at the recent Folk Alliance Region West Conference, and we just couldn't wait to share her with you. Her latest CD "Free of this Sorrow," released in 2012, has been No. 1 at AMAZON for Top-Rated Americana. With 4 critically-acclaimed CDs to her credit, Dulcie's honesty, warmth and charm will make you an instant fan! Dulcie will be accompanied by George Nauful on guitar.
