No Blarney, Just a Great Show!

Claude Bourbon

A native of France, Claude Bourbon grew up in Switzerland, where he was classically trained for many years. Now based in the U.K., this finger picking guitarist has performed and studied all over the world; he has crafted an unbelievable fusion of classical and jazz, with ethereal Eastern influences, Spanish and Latin elements with strains of Western folk. He may have his roots in the blues, but he is inspired by music and song from all around the world, taking these sounds and weaving them into a performance of blues, rock, jazz, songs and melodies that defy a label, all delivered with a gravelly voice. Thousands of people in the UK, Europe and USA have enjoyed listening to this virtuoso, and for the majority of his audience it is an experience that compels them to return again and again to hear and watch him play, as his fingers lightly dance over the strings of his guitar and create a unique sound that is 'Claude'. Lily Wilson

Lily Wilson grew up on a Napa Valley vineyard. Her career in music started when Lily moved to Granada, Spain, where she was drawn to the Flamenco and Moroccan music. She played and sang solo and in bands, on street corners, tea shops, and bars all over Andalusia. Now based in L.A., Lily performs nationwide and writes and records with producer/ composer/ bassist Mark Browne. She has also performed and recorded with Melissa Etheridge, Kenny Loggins and Patty Griffin. Lily recently won the L.A. Music Awards "Female Vocal of the Year" in the AC category for her song, "A Little Life," which is featured on "The Right Time." Find out more about Lily at www.LilyWilson.com/.
