The Best of the North Country!

Beth Wood is a modern-day troubadour and believer in the power of song. Her exceptional musicianship, inspired songwriting and commanding stage presence have been winning over American audiences for sixteen years. Beth's music is soulful, organic, intelligent, barefoot, high-energy communication of joy. A native of Lubbock, Texas who now calls Oregon home, Beth has won top honors at the Kerrville, Sisters, and Wildflower festivals, to name just a few. At every Folk Alliance conference we attend, we pick our favorite artist out of the 300+ in attendance. At Oakland in 2014, that artist was Beth Wood. When you experience her performance, you will understand why. Check her out at www.BethWoodMusic.com.

James Woolwine is a truly unique musical talent. An award-winning guitarist and pianist from the San Francisco Bay area, he performs eclectic concerts of instrumental and vocal music. James' instrumental compositions showcase his musical depth; mixing a classical background with pop melodicism, jazz sophistication, and rock energy. Guitar pieces alternate between intricate fingerpicking and precise flatpicking. Piano solos full of beautiful melodies give way to impressive displays of technique. His vocal songs highlight the best elements of Folk and Rock music; combining intelligent lyrics with Top-40 hooks. James' stylistic diversity and superior musicianship ensure that audiences are always impressed and entertained. More about James at www.JamesWoolwine.com.
