

Camarillo Café

Concert Series

A smoke-free and alcohol-free coffeehouse-style concert series hosted by Gary & Kathy Lynch

A Legendary Night of Great Music!

With almost four decades of performing festivals, concert halls, coffeehouses, colleges, and house concerts, along with a half dozen acclaimed CDs, legendary singer-songwriter Bernice Lewis has built an enthusiastic national fan base. She is also a published poet, a producer, and an educator extraordinaire. Lewis — who studied vocal improvisation with Bobby McFerrin, guitar technique with Alex DeGrassi and Guy van Duser, and songwriting with Rosanne Cash and Cris Williamson — has been a featured performer on NPR's Mountain Stage program, as well as at the Kennedy Center. In 2008, she was awarded an Artist in Residence position by the National Park Service. You can learn more about Bernice at www.BerniceLewis.com.

Singer-songwriter Laura Zucker wins audiences over with a hard-won perspective and a positive spin. The powerful imagery of her songs and stories ring so true you might think she's read your diary — and you'll find yourself humming her infectious melodies for days to come. She's a two-time finalist in the prestigious Kerrville Folk Festival New Folk competition in Texas and has received numerous accolades and awards from the organizations around the world. This will be Laura's second appearance at the Camarillo Café, and we are so looking forward to seeing her again — because on top of all that talent, she is one of the nicest people we know!
