MONICA PASQUAL AND THE HANDSOME BRUNETTES is led by one of the main songwriters, keyboardist and vocalist in the hugely successful Bay Area band, Blame Sally. Monica has also released a succession of solo albums that have been both widely popular and critically acclaimed. Her latest project features a new band, THE HANDSOME BRUNETTES, with some of the top musicians around. The all-star lineup includes Blame Sally percussionist/vocalist Pam Delgado, guitarist/vocalist Vely Appleton from the band Spark & Whisper and incredible cellist, Josh McClain. Monica's great songwriting and soaring vocals have drawn comparisons to Joni Mitchell and Rickie Lee Jones, but exhibit the unique, soulful sound for which she has become widely appreciated. Her masterful songwriting explores themes that range from deeply personal emotions to statements of universal truth. Monica also shares her gifts by teaching songwriting and producing other artists. This will be the SoCal debut of both this great band and their brand new first CD, "Is Fortune a Wheel".

DEAR JOHN LOVE RENEE features Renee Harcourt, the other main songwriter, multi-instrumentalist and vocalist in Blame Sally. Renee has a wonderful previously released solo album. Her latest project, DEAR JOHN LOVE RENEE, includes the songwriting, guitar and vocals of New York City transplant John McConnel along with her own songwriting, guitar and vocals. Rounding out the trio's sound are the bass stylings and harmony vocals of Josh Zucker, who has achieved notoriety as part of The Jones Gang (formerly Houston Jones). The band features a sound that reminds one of The Everly Brothers and Simon and Garfunkel, along with a wide variety of other influences. Renee's impressive studio expertise and virtuosity on a variety of instruments ensure the ensemble's always interesting arrangements bring just the right colors and textures to their great tunes. They too are making their SoCal performance debut and are celebrating the release of their first CD, "Dear John Love Renee".
