THE JONES GANG (formerly Houston Jones) invites you into a world of musical virtuosity and storytelling ranging from the myths of ancient Greece to the red dirt back roads of Waskom Texas. The Bay Area based high-octane Americana quintet performs a mostly original repertoire that ranges from bluegrass and folk to blues and gospel. The acoustic heart of the band beats with the passion of five lifetimes lived in a musical landscape of revival tents to Irish pubs, New Orleans to the Great Plains to Motown, a church in Cape Cod to a punk club in Berkeley. This explosive, wide-ranging performance will touch your heart and get your feet moving of their own volition.

Travis Jones (lead vocals, guitar), began performing as a child accompanying his mother on gospel tours in the South. He honed his soulful delivery in his years as a child preacher in churches around his native Shreveport, only to throw down his bible when he saw the Beatles on Ed Sullivan.

Henry Salvia (keyboards, accordion) has performed with the Johnny Nocturne Band, Bo Diddley, Rickie Lee Jones and Big Jay McNeely.

Peter Tucker (drums) has deep Americana roots, having performed and recorded with a wide array of Americana musicians, including Tim Hardin, Richie Havens, the Beau Brummels, Warren Zevon and Skunk Baxter. Peter was also in the original rhythm section of The Waybacks.

Joshua Zucker (bass) has worked with the Rowan Brothers, Peter Rowan, Caren Armstrong, David Gans, Randy Clark, David Phillips, Garrin Benfield, Dore Collier, Tim Weed, Andrew Freeman and countless others.

Sean Allen (lead guitar, steel guitar) is a graduate of Berklee School of Music and has played with numerous well-known acts such as Commander Cody and Carlene Carter.

The San Francisco Chronicle described the band as "a confluence of sublime talent". As Houston Jones, the band was hugely popular with SoCal audiences, and their previous appearances at the Camarillo Café Concert Series were among the best-attended shows in the 26 year history of the series. Come to our first-ever afternoon show on Sunday, October 23rd and you can become a member of The Jones Gang too!
